

LOCATION

RESTRICTED PARKING BY PRIOR ARRANGEMENT ONLY

The Council House is very accessible for rail, bus and cycle users as well as for visitors on foot.

New Street and Snow Hill Stations are at the centre of the national rail network. Both stations are within 10 minutes walk of the the Council House.

Most bus services terminate or travel through the City Centre. Stops are located within 5 minutes walk of the Council House.

There are public cycle parking bays in Chamberlain Square (between Council House Extension and Central Library). For authorised users there are facilities within the Underground and Courtyard Car Parks.

The area in and around the Council House is pedestrianised with routes taking you east to the main shopping centres and west to the ICC, NIA, Brindley Place and Broad Street.

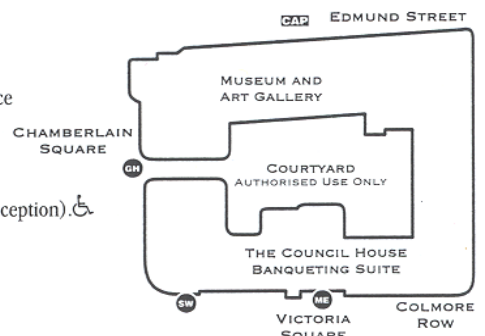

ACCESS TO COUNCIL HOUSE

Controlled Access Point

Gatehouse Entrance to Courtyard

South West Door (Council House Reception)

Main Entrance.

From New Street Station platforms you emerge onto the station concourse. As you leave the concourse, immediately in front of you are stairs and escalators. Take these up into the Pallisades Shopping Centre. At top of stairs, turn left and follow signs to the New Street exit. Walk down the pedestrian ramp and turn left onto New Street at the bottom of the ramp. Continue up New Street for approximately 200 metres. You then reach Victoria Square, which has a large fountain, as well as the statue of Queen Victoria. As you approach the square from New Street, the Council House is to your right, facing onto the square. Council House reception is at the left hand corner of the building, as you face it. It is marked on the diagram above as SW Door.
